

Mary called about my email. Her letter says she is approved for in network while our letter is a denial. Told her that she still needs to call about in network doctors. Once she gets that to us, we can request approval

She wants to try to get at least 1 surgery in before the end of the year