

Called PT to confirm medical history and chart/answer and pertinent questions about the consultation. PT was given the rundown of how the process will look here at the office from arrival to departure and was inquiring about the lipo lift given that she had a consultation with him years ago and those were his recommendations. She wants to see what that will look like now or if those recommendations will have changed.

MK